History of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis

Indianapolis was established as a town in 1821. It was at this time that a commission, appointed by the legislature, selected this location as a site for a seat of government of the State of Indiana.

The town of Indianapolis conducted its affairs pursuant to the general laws of the state until 1832. In this year the town was incorporated and was governed by a board of five trustees.

In 1838, pursuant to a special act of the legislature, Indianapolis was re-incorporated and placed in the hands of its first town council composed of a president and six members.

The common council continued in a large measure to control the affairs of Indianapolis as a town and as a city under various so-called charters or grants of the legislature until 1891.

Under a special act of the legislature of 1891 for the city of Indianapolis, a somewhat different form of government was established. While the council continued to exercise broad control over the city's affairs, various executive departments of the city were provided, such as Public Works, Public Safety, Public Parks and Public Health, conducted by boards appointed by the Mayor. These boards were granted specific powers and duties concerning the city's business previously exercised by the council through committees subject, however, in some cases to approval of the council in all matters of expenditure of money and appropriation of funds by the council.

For some time prior to 1891 the City of Indianapolis was divided into 25 wards represented by 25 ward councilmen. Their term of office was two years and they were eligible for re-election. At this time there was also a separate body operating in conjunction with the council called the Board of Aldermen, composed of ten Aldermen, representing five Aldermanic districts, two being elected from each district.

Under the 1891 act the Board of Aldermen was abolished and a common council of 21 members was established. Fifteen members were elected to represent 15 wards and six members were elected to represent the city at large.

This form of council continued to exist in Indianapolis under the general cities and towns act of 1905. The act of 1905, while often referred to as the Indianapolis Charter, is very largely a re-enactment of the 1891 Indianapolis charter, modified to make the Indianapolis system applicable to all classes of cities of the state. The 1905 law increased the term of Mayor and councilman to four years and prohibited re-election.

In 1909 a novel councilmanic law for Indianapolis alone was passed by the legislature. This law limits the number of councilmen to nine. The law provides for the nomination by each party of six candidates, one from each of six councilmanic districts. In the election all of the voters of the city may vote for any nine candidates and the nine receiving the highest number of votes are elected. This law insures a minority representation in the Council of at least three members. In 1949 the legislature amended the statutes to permit councilmen to succeed themselves.

INTRODUCTION OF APPROPRIATION ORDINANCE

By Councilman Williamson:

APPROPRIATION ORDINANCE NO. 2, 1962

AN ORDINANCE, appropriating, transferring, reappropriating and reallocating the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00), from a certain specific, designated item and fund in the Department of Public Works to a certain other designated item and fund in the same department, created by virtue of the 1962 Budget, General Ordinance No. 80, 1961, declaring an emergency and fixing a time when the same shall take effect.

WHEREAS, certain extraordinary conditions have developed since the adoption of the existing annual budget, and certain monies appropriated for certain accounts of the Department of Public Works are insufficient to meet current needs of the Department, and

WHEREAS, certain existing appropriations for said department now have unobligated balances which will not be needed for the purpose for which appropriated.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Section 1. That a certain item and fund specifically budgeted in the Department of Public Works, Administration, be and the same is hereby reduced in the following amount, to-wit:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
ADMINISTRATION

REDUCE:

TAX LEVY

3. SUPPLIES:

36. Office Supplies -----$8,000.00
and said amount is transferred therefrom, reappropriated and re-allocated to the following designated item and fund:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
PUBLIC BUILDINGS

APPROPRIATED TO:

TAX LEVY

2. SERVICES—CONTRACTUAL

25. Repairs -----$8,000.00

Section 2. The above transfer and reappropriation is necessary because of an existing emergency, in that a need has arisen requiring the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars in repairs to be made on the Police Cycle Garage, the full extent of said need was not foreseen at the time of proposing the 1962 Budget, because there has arisen an unusual requirement for more repairs and supplies. There are sufficient funds by virtue of the above reduction to meet this appropriation and said appropriation will not result in any increase in the total budget.

Section 3. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval by the Mayor.

Which was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Councilman McKinney:

It is recommended that two people each from the City and County Boards of Zoning Appeals' staffs who are presently assigned to this duty be transferred to the Metropolitan Planning Department. If this adjustment cannot be made, or if only one person can be transferred from each Board of Zoning Appeals, then the Commission will request the necessary additional clerical positions on the Metropolitan Planning Department staff to perform this function.

Mrs. Teresa F. Laffey, City Clerk
City of Indianapolis
2542 City-County Building
Indianapolis 4, Indiana

Dear Mrs. Laffey:

Senator R. Vance Hartke has notified me that the Postmaster General of the United States, Mr. J. Edward Day, has nominated me as Acting Postmaster of the Indianapolis Post Office. This is an honor which I feel I should accept.

It is my observation that the City Administration at the time I received this honor is functioning well and can continue in operation under the program I have laid out as Mayor by those whom I have appointed and in whom I have the greatest confidence.

As you know, the law provides that upon the resignation of a Mayor, the City Controller takes over as Acting Mayor and it will be the duty of the City Controller in Indianapolis to act as Mayor of the City during the remainder of my term.

The City Clerk as keeper of the records for the Common Council will no doubt wish to make note of my resignation as Mayor and by operation of law to note that at the time my resignation becomes effective, the City Controller will automatically by force of law under the provisions of Chapter 344 of the Acts of 1955 become the Acting Mayor and will thereafter be charged with the duty of approving all Council Ordinances among other things.

It is my understanding that I will be sworn in as Postmaster of the City of Indianapolis on Monday afternoon, August 6, 1962. Accordingly, I resign as Mayor of the City of Indianapolis effective as of the time of my qualification as Acting Postmaster of Indianapolis.

Sincerely,

CHARLES H. BOSWELL,
Mayor

Transmitted herewith are twenty-eight copies of Appropriation Ordinance No. 11, 1962, covering the transfer of $100.00 within the Department of the Personnel Consultant.

The need for contractual services funds will be less than the amount budgeted, whereas the fund for supplies and office supplies has increased over the amount expected at the time of making the budget in a manner that could not be foreseen at that time and an emergency exists for the use of such supplies. For such reason it is necessary and advisable to transfer moneys within the Department of the Personnel Consultant.
